Please complete the following section if you will be applying for a Federal Stafford Loan. If you will not be borrowing a Stafford Loan, skip to PLUS Loan or Private Loan section.

Federal Stafford Loan

If you are applying for a Federal Stafford Loan, you must first complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). You can complete the FAFSA online at: <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>. You must also submit signed copies of your and your parents' 2008 Federal Tax Returns to the Office of Financial Aid. If you are a new borrower, when your loan has been processed, your lender will instruct you to complete the Master Promissory Note (MPN). You will also be required to complete an Entrance Loan Interview online at: <https://ssol.columbia.edu>.

Stafford Lender Selection

To All Borrowers: If you are borrowing a Stafford Loan, you must choose a lender. After you select a lender, record your choice below. For information regarding Columbia University's suggested lenders please refer to the following website: http://www.columbia.edu/cu/sfs/docs/Ugrad_Fin_Aid/index.html. Students and parents have the right and ability to select the education loan provider of their choice, are not required to use any of the suggested lenders, and will suffer no penalty for choosing a lender that is not a suggested lender. We encourage students and parents to explore the loan products of lenders that are not included as a suggested lender.

Lender Name: _____ Amount: $: _____

You must apply for a private loan directly with your lender. The loan will show as an anticipated credit on the student's E-Bill when the lender approves the loan, the borrower has completed the application process, and the school receives and processes the certification request from the lender.

Certification Statement:

- I certify that I will use any money I receive under a Title IV HEA loan, grant, work-study or scholarship program only for expenses for my study at Columbia University.
- I certify that I do not owe a refund on any grant, am not in default on any loan, and have not borrowed in excess of the academic year or aggregate loan limits under the Title IV programs at my institution. I understand that it is Columbia University policy to refuse financial aid to any student who is in default on any federal or university loan, who has borrowed in excess of loan limits, or who owes a refund to the U.S. Department of Education, Columbia, or any other institution. Further, I understand that if a student is found to be in default, to have borrowed in excess of the loan limits, or to owe a refund after being offered financial aid, the University will withdraw all aid immediately while continuing to hold the student responsible for any charges incurred. Students who falsely attest to their status in this regard may be subject to disciplinary action as well.
- I understand that the student applicant may be given access to all information filed in support of this application for financial aid. I understand that all award notices are sent to the student.
